CWB Member Meeting Minutes, 11 April 2026

Meeting was called to order by XO Dan Shoemaker at 1015, 11 Apr 26 in the Red Barn Classroom, Museum of Flight, Seattle.

Forty individuals attended in person; four attended online.

XO welcomed new members and guests, including three of the four Pilot scholarship awardees. He also announced the creation of the A & P Scholarship.

Finance Officer John Haug announced that the financial turnover was mostly complete; new member kits are to continue and he is available to accept membership dues both in person and electronically. FO also updated that CWB has two boxes reserved with 21 seats sold for the 2026 Roswell Air Races and, if there is enough demand, has an option on a third box. Lastly, he reminded everyone that EAA membership is required for CWB membership, and CWB hats are available for purchase.

Memorial Youth Flying Scholarship Chair, Peter Jackson introduced the 2026 Scholarship recipients; Collin Meyer, Ezequiel Recinos, and Ala'saga Mu'ied. The fourth winner, Ava Zendejas, couldn't attend because of a prior Civil Air Patrol commitment. Each awardee gave a short speech explaining why they applied and what they intend to achieve in the world of aviation.

Chief Marshaller Heijo Kuil announced that the Marshaller's annual classroom training is scheduled for 18 April at 1100. It will be held at the Museum of Flight Restoration Center on Paine Field. The practical training will be held at Arlington Airport and is tentatively scheduled for 16 May.

USAF LtCol (Ret.) and current Museum of Flight docent, Jerry Coy gave an engaging presentation on the relative strengths and weaknesses of the F-4 and the MiG-21 in the context of Vietnam era combat. He also shared information about what is involved in training for and coordinating Search and Rescue missions.

CO Bob Stoney joined the meeting, and re-iterated details about the new A&P Scholarship.

USAF Capt (Ret.) and current CWB XO Dan Shoemaker presented a "Know Your Warbird" for the T-37 and its variants.

Operations Officer Jay Borella gave a brief reminder about events scheduled for this spring and summer.

CO closed meeting at 1204.
